The 'Bookie Blagger' gets 12 years in jail

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

AN "OLD lag" who embarked on a string of armed robberies at betting shops after being released on licence from a life sentence has been jailed for 12 years.

Nicholas Smith, 58, had admitted one robbery in Cambridge, two in Haverhill and five others and appeared for sentence last Friday at Harrow Crown Court.

He also admitted eight offences of possessing firearms, though it was accepted that fake weapons were used in all of the robberies.

Smith, 58, dubbed the "Bookie Blagger", had faced a total of 44 charges of robbery, attempted robbery and possession of firearms.

He netted £13,384 in those raids in 2006 and 2007 but none of the money was recovered.

Judge Alan Greenwood sentenced Smith to 12 years in prison, specifying he should serve a minimum of six years and only be released if the parole board is satisfied he no longer poses a risk to the public.

Smith has previous convictions dating back to 1975 for robberies, attempted robberies, possessing firearms and wounding.

Judge Alan Greenwood said: "If ever there was a case of serious risk to the public this was it. The report describes him, not unfairly, as a career criminal. Sometimes career criminals retire, sometimes they don't."

He said staff faced with an imitation gun would not be able to distinguish it from a real gun and would therefore be terrified.

Grant to Scouts hits the bullseye

SOME sharp shooting Scouts are getting the chance to try their hand at archery thanks to new equipment funded by local councillors. Members of 2nd Haverhill Sea Scouts showed off their new equipment at a "come and share" event for children and their parents on Saturday. Suffolk county councillors Karen Knights, Phil French and Tim Marks, were there to see the substantial amount of equipment financed by their Locality Fund grant of £2,440. Archery will now be available to Scout Association members of all ages at the western end of the Sudbury Scout District. Monica Reed of 2nd Haverhill and Bryn Pedrick of 1st Haverhill Scout Group gained their archery instructor's qualification earlier this year and are looking forward to helping others to benefit from their expertise.

The event was attended by 50 people and supported by Ridgesons of Saffron Walden and Déjà Vu of Haverhill. The 2nd Haverhill has a thriving Beaver Colony, Cub Pack and Scout Troup, but is always in need of more adult help, not necessarily as a uniformed leader. Anyone interested in helping young people aged between six and 20 years and can contact the leaders through the Weekly News.

Danger drivers putting lives on the line

DEATH-WISH drivers are putting people's lives at risk by flouting the law on Suffolk's roads.

Shocking figures following the launch of Suffolk police's enforcement campaign in September show that in just four weeks, 900 motorist offences were committed in the county.

More than 670 people were spotted not wearing their seatbelt and 100 drivers were seen using their mobile phones.

From September 1 to 29, 210 motorists were caught speeding and police issued 115 fixed penalty notices for other motoring offences, such as vehicle defects.

Figures also show that between January 1 and September 26 2008, there were 275 people killed or seriously injured on Suffolk's roads.

In the same period in 2007, that figure stood at 216, meaning there has been an increase of 27 per cent in the casualty rate.

Police say the enforcement has been successful, but admit there is still a lot of work to be done.

Deputy Chief Constable Jacqui Cheer, said: "The high number of people who break the law and drive inappropriately is disappointing."

"They are putting their own lives and the lives of others at risk."

The crackdown was launched with Suffolk County Council and Suffolk Safecam.

DCC Cheer said: "Officers will be continuing this high level of enforcement."

Mayor Ager 'walks in the dark' for appeal

By Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

HAVERHILL Mayor Les Ager found himself plunged into darkness at the weekend and trying to find his way along the High Street.

Cllr Ager agreed to walk blindfolded from Haverhill Arts Centre to the Market Square and back again, with guidance from Haverhill Lions Club members as part of their events for World Sight Day.

Lions Clubs across the world organise numerous programmes to help improve people's sight, including tackling river blindness, vision and diabetes screenings, community education programmes and glasses collections.

Members of Haverhill Lions Club set up a stall on Haverhill Market Square and asked shoppers to help cover a picture of a lion with coins, mainly gold coloured £1 coins. Their efforts were well supported and the cash raised will be divided between Lions sight charity funds and the Weekly News Hospice at Home Appeal.

Cllr Ager said he was happy to help out, but quite apprehensive about being blindfolded. He said: "It was the most peculiar sensation."

How can you help us hit the target?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help - so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fundraising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause?

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An online donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Just coming out of the Arts Centre completely disorientated me. It was like being underground. I could hear voices, but I had not got a clue where I was until I reached Dinky Donuts and I could smell them. I could hear familiar voices of people who obviously knew me.

"It was a strange experience and you realise how difficult it would be if you had not got any sight. I have worn glasses since I was three, but to be in complete darkness like that is very different."

The Lions Club is just one of the many groups who have supported our Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal which was launched in February and has so far raised £27,000 towards its £40,000 target to pay for services to be provided for patients in the Haverhill area in their own homes, rather than them having to travel to the Hospice in Bury St Edmunds.

Any other groups or individuals who want to help the appeal should contact us on (01440) 703891 or e-mail editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Focus on parking dangers

PARENTS are being reminded to park safely near schools in the rural area around St Edmundsbury, with new display boards going up.

The St Edmundsbury Rural North and South Safer Neighbourhood Teams have designed an A-board to highlight areas where parking may be dangerous outside schools.

Together with the Safer Neighbourhood Team (SNT) logo and the Suffolk Constabulary crest, the boards read "Parking here may put a child's life at risk".

Six boards have been purchased for schools in the rural area to use at the start and end of the school day with funding from Suffolk Police Authority.

PCSO Jonathan Burke from the St Edmundsbury Rural North Safer Neighbourhood Team said safety outside schools was a priority for officers. He said: "We carry out routine patrols around the schools in the area, offering advice on safety and parking to parents, but unfortunately a minority continue to park in restricted areas, putting children at unnecessary risk."

"We are hoping these boards will make parents think twice before they decide to park illegally, and also make the schools and their surrounding areas safer places to be."

In addition to the six boards bought by the SNTs, all schools in the area can purchase their own boards.

Couple celebrate their diamond day

■ GIVE AND TAKE . . . Allan and Cherry Fraser are celebrating 60 years of marriage. Picture: Duncan Lamont 515430.

A BIT of give and take is the key to 60 years of marriage according to one couple who are celebrating their diamond wedding anniversary.

Allan and Cherry Fraser, both 82, of Horseheath, near Haverhill, married at St Alkmund Church in Shrewsbury in 1948 after having met four months previously.

Mrs Fraser said: "I was in the land army and my husband was a farm student. He had been an officer in the army but he came out and thought he would like to try farming."

The couple have four children, Peter, Gail and twins Ginnie and Caroline, as well as 12 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The Fraser children lived on a number of farms with their parents as they were growing up, in Gloucestershire, Oxfordshire and then Cambridgeshire.

The couple moved to the area in 1966 and Mrs Fraser joined the Welding Institute (now the TWI) based in Abington. Mr Fraser joined Spillers (now Dalgety).

Caroline Lee, their daughter, who lives next door, said: "They brought us four up really well. We had the freedom of the farm when we were little. I used to help my dad on the farm a lot and go to shows and things like that."

Mrs Fraser, now retired, said the secret to 60 years of marriage is "a bit of give and take". She and her husband played golf for about 20 years and were both archery champions.

Mrs Fraser added: "My husband is an artist, landscape mainly. He is very versatile and does pen and ink sketches, oils and watercolours."

Friends will be celebrating with Mr and Mrs Fraser on Thursday, the day of their anniversary, and a family party will take place on Saturday.

■ STRING OF ROBBERIES . . . Nicholas Smith, 58, captured on CCTV carrying out raids on bookmakers.

Robber jailed for 12 years

Smith was finally seized by armed officers in a dawn swoop on his home at Tempsford Avenue, Borehamwood, Hertfordshire.

He terrified cashiers at Haverhill's Camps Road Ladbroke's branch last June when he walked in wearing a coat with the hood up, sunglasses and a scarf around the lower part of his face.

He walked off with hundreds of pounds after threatening staff with a fake gun. He also admitted an earlier robbery at the same shop in February 2007, but denied one at Ladbroke's in Jubilee Walk, Haverhill, on New Year's Day last year.

Smith admitted carrying out an armed robbery at a betting office in Cambridge in January last year, but denied another one in the city last April.

Justin Rouse, mitigating, said Smith would be an old man on his release from prison.

The court heard that after Smith was released from his life sentence he tried to work but lost jobs when employers discovered his criminal record.

Mr Rouse said: "He got into debt and borrowed from loan sharks. While in prison he had been pivotal in setting up a centre to help inmates struggling to cope with prison life, who were often suicidal."

"He is an old lag and is respected by other prisoners. He is, at the bottom of it all, a decent, sincere man who wants to help others. He couldn't help himself, and so it was he embarked on this appalling spree of dishonesty."

Thug 'deserves more than one year in jail'

A MAN described as a danger to women has been sent to crown court for sentence after a district judge sitting at magistrates' court said he deserved more than a year's jail.

Dale Knappett, 25, terrified his girlfriend Claire Simpson when he went into a rage at her home in which he pinned her to the ground, wrecked a kitchen cupboard, drove off in her car and later left taps running in the house causing a flood.

At the time Knappett was on bail for an incident involving a previous girlfriend when he "trashed" her car after driving it off from outside a pub.

District Judge David Cooper, sitting at Bury St Edmunds mag-

BY John Goode

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

istrates' court, said that despite a "sweet" statement from Ms Simpson, a mother of two children, in which she said she forgave Knappett and was willing to have him back, he deserved more than the maximum 12 months sentence that he was able to impose.

The court heard that Knappett, who has lived in King George Avenue, Exning, and Wren Close, Mildenhall, had seven previous convictions for 16 offences including causing actual bodily harm to an ex-partner and a charge of battery involving a four-month-old baby.

Judge Cooper told Knappett: "It seems to me you are a danger to women who have children in the same household. You have no control over your temper at all."

"My powers of punishment are limited to 12 months in prison of which you would serve less than half."

"To my mind the public would not be sufficiently protected, therefore I am committing you for sentence to Ipswich Crown Court."

He ordered that Knappett should remain in custody until his crown court appearance.

Knappett's solicitor, Peter Masters, had suggested that he should be given a community sentence involving working with probation officers to address his problems.

Mr Masters said Knappett would not get the same level of support if he was jailed.

Knappett admitted aggravated vehicle taking on March 15 when he wrote off a former girlfriend's BMW car in a crash after driving it away from a pub. The court heard he crashed it on a bend because he could not find the light switch.

He also admitted driving without insurance and not having a valid licence.

He admitted assaulting Ms Simpson, at her home in Stradishall, on September 20, taking her Vauxhall Vectra without consent, driving while disqualified, having no insurance, having a lock knife and knuckle duster as offensive weapons, burglary with intent to cause damage at her home and burglary at his mother's home in Exning.

Delight as school rated 'outstanding' by Ofsted

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

AN UPPER school has received top marks from Ofsted inspectors who described it as "outstanding" in almost every aspect.

Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College in Haverhill achieved an outstanding overall grade 1, as well as being rated as outstanding for overall effectiveness of the school.

It also gained outstanding for achievement and standards, personal development and well-being, curriculum, core, guidance and support and leadership and management.

Headteacher, Howard Lay said: "My staff and governors are delighted with this report because it demonstrates the positive attitude of the young people who attend the school."

"They are proud of the school and I am proud of them. It further demonstrates the transforming nature of Haverhill and the fact that it is fast becoming a dynamic and forward looking place to live and work."

"The report highlights the school's success in unifying the values of a town with those of the more rural area. This is an essential part of the healing process following the Schools Organisation Review and I am proud of the fact that young people are taking a lead in that process."

Picture: Keith Jones 514472

The Ofsted report found Samuel Ward to be: "An outstanding school providing an excellent learning environment in which students feel safe and valued."

"The school genuinely puts the needs of learners first. Leadership and management are excellent. The headteacher is outstanding providing exemplary leadership."

Other findings were: achievement and guidance is excellent, the curriculum is outstanding, the school's development of personalised learning is a significant strength, personal development and well-being are outstanding, behaviour is excellent, bullying is rare, capacity to improve is outstanding, self evaluation is comprehensive and secure.

The report said: "Students enter the school with below average standards but by the time they complete Key Stage 4 their standards are above average. This excellent progress is achieved through a combination of consistently good teaching and outstanding care, guidance and support."

"The school has made excellent progress since the last inspection and successfully addressed its areas for improvement. It provides excellent value for money."

To further improve, inspectors said the school should implement its assessment policy more consistently in marking work, provide more opportunities for sixth form students to participate in sport and reduce noise disruption for the sixth form block.

Web moves to beat the crunch

BEATING the credit crunch by making on-line purchases for your business or home is the topic of Haverhill Chamber of Commerce's next event on Tuesday, October 21.

The chamber will welcome local entrepreneur Graeme Gibson, founder of Money Back Heaven, to its meeting at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College at 6pm for 6.30pm.

Sarah Howard, chair of Haverhill Chamber said: "We are all feeling the effects of the current economic climate."

"Money Back Heaven offers an effortless way of finding the best deal on anything from stationery to business travel. There are often special online discounts and you get money back on your purchases to spend as you please."

Money Back Heaven is a new online shop window that aims to provide a range of benefits for businesses from the UK's top retailers. It works by sharing incentive payments with its members.

During the evening there will also be an opportunity to take a tour of the new Arts and Media facility at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College. This facility is available for local businesses to use.

Samuel Ward Arts Department will be displaying an exciting and diverse range of art which makes great statement pieces for the office or boardroom.

The evening will close with light refreshments supplied by Samuel Ward and a chance to network.

To find out more or book a place at £7.50 for chamber members and £15 for non-members, contact Kate Anstee by telephone on (01799) 668132 or by emailing kateanstee@haverhillchamber.co.uk

Warning over Norovirus

HEALTH officials from NHS Suffolk are urging the public to take simple steps to prevent them contracting winter vomiting virus as the weather turns colder.

Norovirus affects hundreds of people in the community each year. Sufferers get bouts of diarrhoea and vomiting which last for one or two days, but may remain contagious even after they start feeling better.

The virus commonly occurs in the winter months, but outbreaks sometimes happen in the spring.

It is passed from person to person, mainly where bathroom facilities are shared, and can become a problem in institutions such as hospitals, schools and care homes.

Dr Peter Bradley, director of public health with NHS Suffolk, said: "Norovirus is highly infectious and affects scores of people across the county every year. There are simple steps which you can take to prevent you from becoming one of that number."

"We would advise everyone to follow basic hygiene rules and use soap and water to wash their hands thoroughly after using the toilet and before preparing food."

"Anyone who is suffering from the illness should stay at home and drink plenty of fluids. They should stay away from other people wherever possible, particularly avoiding visiting hospitals, for at least 48 hours after they have recovered, even if they feel better."

Bowlers on a roll for hospice

BOWLERS from all across Suffolk, Cambridgeshire and Essex rolled up for a charity competition at the weekend and gave a bumper £2,000 boost to their local hospice.

It was the 13th year that Withersfield Carpet Bowls Club has held its charity tournament, raising thousands of pounds for different charities over the years.

Thirty two teams took part in this year's event held at Gramplan Foods Social Club in Little Wratting on Saturday, in aid of the St Nicholas Hospice at Bury St Edmunds.

The total raised on the day was just under £1,900 and the club has agreed to make this up to £2,000.

Tony Frewer, club captain, said: "It was wonderful, we had an absolutely fabulous day and we are really pleased with the amount we raised.

"There are so many good charities out there, but we wanted to do it for the Hospice as one of our members last year finished up there and they helped him, so we wanted to give something back."

Police chief horrified by A1307's danger drivers

CAMBRIDGESHIRE'S Chief Constable has spoken out over reckless drivers on the notorious A1307.

A "dismayed" Julie Spence criticised "brazen" motorists flouting the law on the road and said they had underlined her view that drivers not roads were to blame for fatalities.

She made the comments in her latest podcast after the results of a crackdown in which one motorist was caught texting a warning to a friend about police activity on the road.

Another was caught driving a vehicle in a dangerous condition without tax, insurance or MoT certificate.

Police mounted the operation on the road, which has seen 28 people lose their lives in the past 10 years, after the head-on collision which caused the deaths of David Bocking, 43, and his teenage sons Daniel and Stephen in July.

Mrs Spence said: "Like me you were probably dismayed or even horrified – but probably not surprised – by the number of drivers issued with penalty tickets by officers on the A1307 some days ago.

"The behaviour and actions of those stopped by my officers clearly underline what I and many others have recently said – drivers, not roads, are to blame for deaths and injuries.

"It also demonstrates that there are a minority of motorists who obstinately refuse to conform to the law.

"I have no idea what goes on in their heads – but they clearly have no regard for the vast majority of other law-abiding road users. Why else would they fail to tax or insure their vehicles, drive about with mechanical defects – and even text friends, while driving, to warn them of my officers' presence?"

But Mrs Spence was delighted with an A1307 road safety video which has been watched by hundreds of people.

She said: "While it is depressing that some flout the law with such brazen disregard, it is also pleasing that a safe driving film for the A1307 produced by our casualty reduction officer, Tony Barrios, has been so well received, with hundreds viewing it on our website and the media reporting it widely."

The action at the end of last month saw police issue 24 fixed penalty notices – including eight for drivers using mobile phones and 12 for people not wearing seatbelts.

Death crash charges

A PORSCHE driver charged with causing the death of a Haverhill care worker in a head-on crash has appeared before magistrates in Bury St Edmunds.

Rhodie Povey, 26, of High Street, Stansfield, Suffolk, is accused of causing the death by dangerous driving of Jane Gatt, 44.

Her Citroen Saxo was in a head-on collision with his Porsche 944S on the A143 between Haverhill and Stradishall, near the Thurlow turning, on May 5 this year.

Mrs Gatt, of Cavendish Court, Haverhill, died from her injuries in Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge.

Both Povey and a passenger in the Citroen car remained in hospital with critical injuries for some time after the Povey appeared before magistrates on Tuesday when his case was sent to Ipswich Crown Court for a preliminary hearing on October 24. He was granted bail until his next appearance and has not yet entered a plea.

Mrs Gatt worked as a carer for Haverhill Care Force.

Tax credits can add up for childless people too

HAVERHILL Citizens Advice Bureau this month tells you about the lesser known Government benefits available to low-paid workers without children.

Q: I am working but only earn the minimum wage and with prices going up so fast I'm finding it really hard to make ends meet. I know there's help for families but I'm single and don't have any children. Can you help?

A: You may be able to claim Working Tax Credit. You don't need to have children to qualify.

If you are 25 or over, work 30 hours or more a week and your earnings are low you may be eligible.

How much you will get is based on a complicated calculation, but it could mean at least £1,800 extra income a year.

To get some idea of how much you might get, you can use the online calculator on HM Revenue and Customs' website at hmrc.gov.uk

A CAB adviser can help you work out exactly how much you should get and advise you on making a claim. To apply for Working Tax Credit, contact the Tax Credit helpline on 0845 3003900 and ask for an application pack.

You will need form TC600 for your first claim. The application pack is also available from HM Revenue and Customs centres, local benefit offices and Jobcentre Plus offices.

The application form requires a lot of information, including your income for the previous tax year. If you have problems filling in the form, you can consult the notes that come with it, call the helpline, or consult a CAB adviser.

If you get Working Tax Credit, you may also be entitled to other financial help such as Housing Benefit, Council Tax Benefit or free prescriptions. A CAB adviser will be able to check you are getting all the money you are entitled to, and help with any debt problems you may have. For more on tax credits and welfare benefits go to the Citizens Advice website www.adviceguide.org.uk Haverhill CAB can be found at the Centre for Voluntary Agencies, in Lower Downs Slade, Haverhill, CB9 9HE.

The bureau is open for anybody to drop in without any appointment between 11am and 2pm on Mondays and Fridays and between 11am and 3pm on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Appointments for a first interview can be made by calling the admin line (01440) 762194 or at the reception. Telephone advice at the bureau is available on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays between 9.30am and 11am on the advice line (01440) 704012.

Picture perfect show of the beauty of books

PROOF that pictures speak louder than words can be heard loud and clear – in local libraries.

Suffolk County Council's libraries are taking a look at the vibrant, energetic, charming and surreal world of picture books in a series of events called The Big Draw running until October 26.

Leading the county's response to the national event is an exhibition of children's book illustrations at the county council's headquarters featuring the work of 25 authors and illustrators.

Many contributors form a little known part of the county's economic and cultural life, having lived, worked or grown up in Suffolk.

The exhibition is in the atrium of Endeavour House, in Ipswich and local schools will be invited to view it.

Libraries across Suffolk are staging other events, each designed to encourage interest and involvement in the beauty of the book.

Haverhill library will welcome top illustrator Gillian McClure who will lead a workshop for children and adults on Sunday, from 10.30am to 12.30pm.

The county council's portfolio holder for adults and communities, Cllr Graham Newman said: "These pictures are engaging, complex, charming and thought provoking and speak directly to us."

"Book illustration works on so many levels, whether it is transporting you back to childhood in an instant, drawing you into a world of make-believe, or reworking and re-interpreting a well-loved tale."

"If you've ever read a book to a child, you'll probably have seen some of these images before, because we're featuring the work of major award-winning illustrators with international reputations alongside new talent."

"This event provides a fantastic opportunity to get drawn into the world and work of these top class illustrators in Suffolk."

"I would thoroughly encourage others to take up this opportunity."

Minority of drivers just do not care

Sir, I note with interest the new signs erected on the A1307 I truly hope that they are a success. However, twice this week I've been passed by cars travelling at speeds and in a manner that leads me to think that although they could both afford expensive luxury German saloons they had not spent much time at school learning to read.

I do not wish to sound too sceptical or like another Victor Meldrew but in my honest opinion until there are speed cameras along the majority of the route between Four Wentways and Haverhill and a reduction of the speed limits the death toll will continue to rise.

There are a recidivistic minority of drivers of all ages, sexes and social classes who just do not care.

Perhaps the council should erect stocks along the A1307 to put the transgressors in for a few days or bill boards with the pictures of convicted motorists put up for all to see.

Chinese ambassador to meet politics students

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

POLITICS students will get to hold a summit meeting with the Chinese Ambassador, Madame Fu Ying, this Friday.

Sixth form politics students at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College will take part in a discussion with Madame Fu after she and local MP Richard Spring meet headteacher, Madeleine Vigar, and are shown round the school by the school council.

Later in the day the politicians will visit Tattersalls, the world-renowned centre of horse sales at Newmarket, where the ambassador will meet its chairman, Mr Edmond Mahony, and the directors of Tattersalls.

The ambassador will then watch an auction in progress, before joining the board and Mr Spring at Newmarket Racecourse, for lunch and an afternoon's racing.

Mr Spring said: "I am absolutely delighted that Madame Fu has accepted my invitation to visit Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College and to meet its inspiring headteacher, Madeleine Vigar.

"The school is a real success story for Haverhill, where rapidly improving results, particularly in technical subjects, help equip students with valuable skills for the future.

"I know the Chinese ambassador will find her visit extremely stimulating and that she will be greatly impressed by meeting the sixth form students.

"It will give her an idea of how our students learn about world affairs and politics."

He added: "Madame Fu's visit to watch a bloodstock auction at Tattersalls will be an excellent opportunity for her to see a part of the British horseracing industry in action.

"Tattersalls accounts for 85 per cent of the bloodstock sales in this country. I know that the ambassador will be fascinated by the sales which are so much part of Newmarket's life."

Police warn parents over mini bikes

PARENTS in Haverhill are being warned that their children's mini motorbikes could be seized and crushed if they are ridden illegally in the town.

The Safer Neighbourhood Team has received a number of complaints about the inappropriate use of motorcycles on Puddlebrook Playing Field.

SNT Sergeant Sarah Bartley said: "Not only do these young riders cause health and safety issues for themselves and others, but they are often reported to be illegally riding on the playing field. This is unacceptable behaviour and anyone who continues to break the law will be firmly dealt with."

A warning will initially be given to the rider, which lasts for 12 months.

Sgt Bartley said: "If caught again the bike can be seized – the owner will then have 21 days to claim the bike or it will be disposed of. They will also have to pay the cost of its removal and retention."

"What is particularly concerning is the age of the children using these mini motorbikes."

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

They are between 12 and 18 years old and are riding around on quite powerful machines unsupervised.

"As parents start to think about presents for their children for Christmas, I would urge them to think twice about buying a mini motorbike unless they are going to take their children to a track where they can ride safely and legally."

"If not, you may be putting your child at risk and the expensive bike could get crushed."

As well as carrying out regular patrols of the area around Puddlebrook Playing Field, police have been visiting garages in Haverhill asking them not to sell petrol to youngsters with cans or scrambler bikes without an adult.

School visits are also planned to show youngsters the dangers of riding mini motorbikes illegally and the penalties they may face.

Sgt Bartley said: "If parents take their children to a dedicated track, they'll be able to enjoy themselves safely and legally, and without disturbing those people who live near the playing field."

Satnav and Ipods stolen

VALUABLE electrical items and jewellery were stolen in a daytime burglary from a house in Haverhill.

Between 9am and 8.30pm on Friday, October 10, thieves got in by smashing a rear ground floor window at the house on Downs Place.

Items stolen included a new satellite navigation system, still in its box, two silver Ipods, red Samsung mobile phone, diamond bracelet and necklace, gold Rolex watch and a Toshiba laptop computer. Police would like to hear from anyone who was in the area at the time, who knows where the items are or the names of those responsible on (01284) 774100.

School's 'isolation room' angers mum

BY Steohen Exley and Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

DISRUPTIVE pupils are "unlawfully imprisoned" in tiny cubicles and left to complete word searches by their school, an angry mother claims.

Students thrown out of lessons at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College in Haverhill are forced to sit in cubicles in an "isolation room" in a former toilet.

Patsy Meads – whose 15-year-old son Chase Meads was permanently excluded from the school when he refused to go back to the "grey room" after a spell there triggered an asthma attack – has consulted solicitors, who believe the school is flouting human rights and education laws.

They are threatening to take the school to the High Court unless it scraps the current use of the isolation room, which Mrs Meads says is managed by a pub bouncer instead of a teacher.

Chase said: "I felt really claustrophobic in there. It was frightening."

Suffolk County Council said similar facilities are in place in a number of schools, and are used as an alternative to permanent exclusions.

Mrs Meads, of Warren Court in the town, said: "We have always had a very good relationship with the school, but Chase had every right to refuse to go into that room on medical grounds."

"He wants to go to school and he wants to learn, not be stuck doing puzzles in a tiny cubicle. It is more like a prison than a school."

■ UPSET . . . Patsy Meads and her sons Chase and Chance. Picture: Duncan Lamont 513014.

The Meads' solicitors have written to Suffolk County Council, arguing the disciplinary procedure breaches the provision of the Human Rights Act 1988 that "no one shall be subjected to a torture or to inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment".

They also claim the school is breaching education legislation by not teaching youngsters in the exclusion room, as well as flouting the common law principle of unlawful imprisonment.

Madeleine Vigar, head teacher at Castle Manor, said: "The behaviour of students at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College was described as very good when Ofsted inspectors visited in December. This is because we create excellent conditions for learning – students work in calm, disciplined classrooms. Visitors to Castle Manor often comment on the sense of calm and purpose around the site.

"The college has a very clear Behaviour Policy which all parents receive when their children join our school. We have operated an internal exclusion facility at Castle Manor since September 2003. The facility, and the way that it is staffed, totally complies with government guidelines."

A spokeswoman for Suffolk County Council said: "Most secondary schools in Suffolk have this type of room and follow guidelines set out by the Department for Children, Schools and Families. This means pupils are in a controlled and safe environment for the duration of their exclusion."

Cabin burglary is key to truck theft

THIEVES entered an insecure portacabin and took keys, which were used to steal a blue Nissan Navara pick-up truck at Clare.

The burglary happened at Hundon Road between 1.15pm and 2pm on Monday and the truck had orange writing on the side, and the registration number FG57 NLO.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Ryan Harris at Clare police on (01284) 774100 or Crime-stoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555111.

Art score puts Alice in country's top echelon

ANOTHER student at a Haverhill school has found herself in the upper echelons of the whole country with her art exam results.

Alice Bennett achieved top marks while attending Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College.

Two other Samuel Ward students, Libby Gardner and Robert Barrett-Sprot both finished in the top ten in the country in GCSE applied art. They attained maximum marks in the subject, an outcome that placed them in the top echelon of the 3,200 students who took it.

Jerry Jarvis, Edexcel's

managing director said: "This is a tremendous achievement and testament to the hard work students put into preparing for their exams. We send our congratulations to Alice".

Alice is now studying at Long Road, Cambridge, doing English Language, English Lit, Classical Civilisation and Art.

Samuel Ward students have appeared in the top 10 lists for the past six years. A to C grade pass rates in applied art are 45 per cent nationally, but 82 per cent of Samuel Ward students are achieving A to C grades.

Police link car crimes

POLICE are linking two thefts from vehicles on the same night at Haverhill and reminding owners to remove all items of value from their cars before they are left unattended. Thieves smashed a window to break into a green Peugeot 306 parked on Henry Close between 11.30pm on Monday and 1.40am on Tuesday. They then stole a DVD player and stereo left inside.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Colin Cox at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

At a similar time – around 1.10am on Tuesday – thieves smashed the window of a black Jeep parked at Cramswell Close and stole four cameras.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Cheryl Claydon at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Woman lashes out

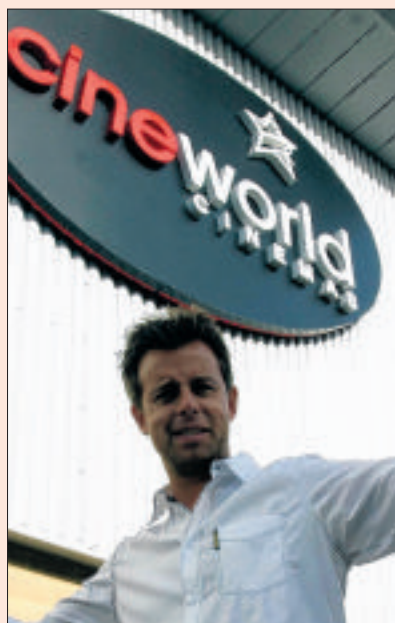

ONE woman kicked another during an incident in a Haverhill car park earlier this month.

The assault happened outside Sainsbury's on Haycocks Road, Haverhill between 2.30pm and 3.30pm on Thursday, October 2. Both women drove in and parked, before the offender challenged the victim, and then kicked her when she tried to walk away.

The female thug is described as white, in her 40s, between 5ft 2in and 5ft 5in tall, with dyed red hair. She was wearing glasses, a khaki jacket, dark trousers and black shoes, and drove a black 2008 registration Vauxhall Astra.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Carl Brandwood at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Flocks at flicks show silver screen can beat the blues

GUESTS flocked to Haverhill's new cinema in droves for a VIP Gala opening night last Thursday.

The new five-screen Cineworld complex in Ehringshausen Way was packed with dignitaries, councillors and townsfolk, as well as the contractors who helped create the £4.2 million building, which was completed on time and on budget.

Cineworld's chief executive Steve Weiner and the new venue's manager Paul Willden welcomed guests to a champagne reception, followed by an official opening ceremony in which they were joined by partners in the development Cllr John Griffiths, leader of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, and Toby Baines, chief executive of developers Citigrove.

Guests were then given a choice of three films to watch, Burn After Reading, with George Clooney and Brad Pitt, which is not on general release until tomorrow, the sing along version of smash hit Mamma Mia or The Rocker. This was followed by a buffet supper served in the foyer. Cllr Griffith said numerous studies had shown that a new cinema topped residents' wish lists and added that when a group of youngsters from the town addressed the council on the issue in 2006 the council was determined to make their dreams come true.

He said: "These are very exciting times in Haverhill despite the economic problems. When I became leader I felt Haverhill needed less studies and more action and we decided to put our money where our mouth is by investing £10 million to pump prime improvements to the town centre.

"Our current capital investments for Haverhill are something like £17 million and I think this will become a leisure quarter for Haverhill that we can all be proud of."

Mr Weiner said he was delighted to open his 75th Cineworld cinema and said it was probably the biggest turn-out the company has ever seen for an opening.

He said: "Historically cinema has been a very resilient business and has done well in economic downturns. Where else can you get away from your day to day problems for a couple of hours for a small fee? We are the lowest charging chain in the country."

The cinema officially opened to the public on Friday morning and Q103's Pat Sharp broadcast his radio show live from the foyer from 4-6pm and queues of excited youngsters stretched into the distance for the free Movie for Juniors screening that took place on Saturday morning, which would normally cost £1.

There were face painters, balloon artists and magicians to entertain the children before they watched the movie.

Song and social history in a pony tale

TALES of a Suffolk woman and her love of horses will be performed next month as Ashen Village Hall Committee hosts The Bumpstead Boys and their presentation of Ruby and her Horses.

The true life Suffolk narrative in story, song and screen is set against the hardships of the agricultural depression of the early 1900s faced by this part of East Anglia.

Neil Lanham relates the stories told to him by his mother of her love of horses through the difficult but enjoyable days of her childhood and beyond.

Each tale is supported by Ruby's own photographs, enhanced for the big screen, and followed by songs from Andrew Stannard.

Graham Howard, of the village hall committee said: "This is our social history at its best, particularly with its local flavour, of times some 80 plus years ago."

The performance will be held on Saturday, November 8, at 7pm for a 7.30pm start, at Ashen Village Memorial Hall, The Street, Ashen.

Tickets priced at £6, with light refreshments, are available by calling Graham on (01440) 788025 or by calling Lorna on (01440) 785535.

Charity golf day – a tribute to Vic

GOLFERS and local businesses helped raise a massive £11,600 in memory of former colleague who died from cancer just before his 44th birthday.

The Vic Dashwood Memorial Golf Day was organised at Haverhill Golf Club by staff from Bradnam Joinery in Rookwood Way, where

Mr Dashwood worked before his death in April this year. The cash raised will be presented to Ward D9 at Addenbrooke's Hospital where Mr Dashwood was treated, and will purchase equipment including two automated observation machines. Jo Perrett, who thought of the idea of a golf tournament and organised it with director Bob Spittle, said they had received overwhelming support with many companies giving donations, sponsoring holes and donating raffle prizes. She said: "When we started we thought £3,000 or £4,000 would be good, but this has surpassed anything we expected, it is wonderful. "Vic was very well regarded within the company and by customers he used to visit and I think everyone was touched by him dying so young. "We had 100 golfers on the day and not just from this area, people came from all over."

Plea for witnesses

A MAN'S eye socket was fractured after he was assaulted in the street in Haverhill.

The incident happened in the High Street between 3pm and 3.15pm on Monday and police are appealing for witnesses to come forward.

Anyone with information can call PC Green at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Clubs and tackle theft

GOLF clubs and fishing equipment were stolen by burglars who broke into a garage by damaging the door in Haverhill.

The theft happened at Seymour Drive between 5pm on Friday, October 10, and 7.30am on Monday.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to PC James McNee at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Talk less, do more, planners are urged

DELAYS caused by congestion, high house prices and a slow planning process have reduced the flow of cash into Cambridge.

This is the damning verdict of a report by the Centre for Cities research group, which believes urgent action is needed to promote a thriving business environment in the city.

It argues more must be done to improve housing, transport and planning to make the city more attractive to businesses and employees.

Also, businesses which focus on industries outside the science and technology fields should be encouraged to promote the diversity of firms in the city during the current economic downturn.

Hannah Brown, research manager

Slow planning procedures, poor transport links and high house prices mean Cambridge is failing to achieve its potential, according to a new report. STEPHEN EXLEY looks at what needs to be done to encourage new investment in the city.

at the Centre for Cities, said: "Even at a time of economic uncertainty, innovation is a key ingredient for business growth, but supporting innovation in Britain's cities isn't about gimmicky policy initiatives or niche business schemes.

"Instead, cities need to get the basics right – delivering good transport, better housing and faster planning decisions – to help businesses to innovate and compete. A better business environment in our cities will help the next James Dyson or Anita Roddick emerge."

Cllr Lewis Herbert, leader of the opposition Labour group on Cambridge City Council, believes the local authorities' "slowness" to take action was to blame.

He said: "Cambridge does a lot of talking but other cities do a lot of building. It takes Cambridge twice as long as other places to get things done."

"The county council has also put off the debate on transport until after the next elections, because plans like the congestion charge will be unpopular.

"Transport needs to be addressed quickly – we need to get moving before the city grinds to a halt. We have got major congestion problems and need major investment in public transport.

"There are a number of housing sites that have stalled recently, including the notorious Orchard Park.

"We know the city council could do a lot more on affordable housing. We need to get talks between the Housing Corporation and the city council going to get more affordable housing."

Cllr Ian Nimmo-Smith, Liberal Democrat leader of the city council, said the "generic" study failed to look at the unique nature of the Cambridge economy.

He said: "The substantial downturn in the housing market means the opportunity of addressing the issue of a shortage of housing has become more difficult.

"I 100 per cent agree we need good transport, but I do not accept that part of the problem is needing faster planning decisions, which would introduce a democratic gap and less opportunity for people to have their say on decisions."

He also paid tribute to the pioneering scientific centres at Cambridge University and Addenbrooke's Hospital.

He said: "Looking at the general demands of business fails to take into account the obvious strengths of Cambridge. To look away from technology in Cambridge would be to miss its obvious strengths."

A Government spokesman said it had already given local authorities enough powers to help them encourage their own approaches to boost economic growth.

She said: "These agreements enable local bodies to combine and deliver more than the sum of their parts on key issues that don't respect local boundaries."

"About 71 per cent of planning decisions on major applications are now made within 13 weeks, up from just 43 per cent in 2002."

CP

Class of 1988 to meet again

IF ANY of the faces on this old school photo are familiar a chance to meet them in person is on offer at a reunion for the class of 1988.

A reunion for pupils who left Castle Manor Upper School in Haverhill 20 years ago is being held at Haverhill Rovers Clubhouse on Saturday, November 15, at 7.30pm.

Tickets are £10, including chicken or fish and chips and organisers will be selling them in the Drabbet Smock pub at Haverhill Market Square on Wednesday, October 22, from 7-9pm. Tickets are also available by calling Lisa Foster on 07506 751178 or Melanie West on 07807 814349.

Firms can be green and profitable

COMPANIES can learn how to improve profitability and their 'green' credentials at the same time at a business breakfast next month.

West Suffolk College is inviting Haverhill businesses to come to a breakfast meeting on Thursday, November 13, from 8am at Haverhill Golf Club to find out how to boost their success. Attendance at this event is free, but places need to be reserved.

Chris Woods, head of the Suffolk School of Management will explain how to improve margins, use fewer resources and become more sustainable. Companies will also be able to find out about funding available to support training for their workforce and flexible training which can be developed to meet individual company's needs.

To reserve a place at the breakfast, contact Anne Bligh on (01284) 716320 or email anne.bligh@wsc.ac.uk

Music men drum to Far East beat

CENTRE Stage Company are wowing Haverhill Arts Centre audiences as usual with The Music Man, their latest all singing all dancing production. Set in a small town in mid-west America it follows the fate of a travelling conman who falls for a librarian. Evening shows run until Saturday at 7.30pm with a matinee on the Saturday.

Monday's afternoon performance of Mamma Mia! (PG) is already sold out and such is demand the centre has lined up extra shows as an early Christmas present on December 19 and 20.

Bridget Jones fans, Polish film Midnight Talks (12A) is for you. Set in Warsaw, it follows singleton Matylda who decides to have a baby, but falls for would-be sperm donor Bartek. With English subtitles. Penelope Cruz and Ben Kingsley star in Elegy (15) on Wednesday, October 22, and Monday, October 27, at 7.45pm. Kingsley plays a professor who falls for a beautiful student.

Hold on to your seats, thundering rhythms on huge Japanese drums plus delicate bamboo flutes and percussion, can only mean the Mugenkyo Taiko drummers return on Friday, October 24, at 7.30pm, with a heart-pounding journey through traditional Japanese music.

Stranglers return with new Golden age

NEW Wave legends The Stranglers will be playing the Corn Exchange in Cambridge on their largest UK tour in several years. The band, whose original lead singer Hugh Cornwell left in 1990 after increasingly acrimony between himself and bassist and songwriter JJ Burnel, have seen a revival of interest in recent years and the latest outing has been billed as a Greatest Hits tour. And they have plenty of hits to choose from. The band have racked up 18 top 40 albums and 24 top 40 singles over the years including Peaches, No More Heroes, Always The Sun and their most instantly recognisable tune Golden Brown. After some time in the critical doldrums the band made a return to form in 2004 when they were re-signed by EMI and released the album Norfolk Coast which they followed up with Suite XVI, both hailed as triumphant comebacks. Tickets are £23. To book call (01223) 357851.

A Big, Ugly smash hit for the little ones

By Jo Deeks

A CHANCE to meet the most horrible and ugly monster in the world is offered to brave youngsters in a children's show visiting Haverhill Arts Centre at the end of the month. So ugly is the monster that no living thing can stand to be in his presence. But the monster is not ugly on the inside he's just lonely.

So he decides to build some friends out of stone, but even stones can't stand the full force of the monster's smile, and they all shatter - except for one. Featuring the voice of Rik Mayall as the narrator, this hilarious and heart-warming story of an ugly monster with a beautiful heart is adapted from the popular children's book by Chris Wormell, who is also author of smash-hit Two Frogs. The Big Ugly Monster and The Little Stone Rabbit is a vibrant and funny show featuring a real life big ugly monster, puppets and magic alongside original music and songs and will be showing at the Arts Centre on Wednesday, October 29 at 2.30pm. Tickets are £4.50 and £16 for a family ticket for two adults and two children, or one adult and three children. The show lasts for approximately one hour and is suitable for children aged three to nine years.

■ HEARTWARMINGLY HORRIBLE... Rik Mayall provides the voices in this live action show for the family.

Truth about dogs from Cats' comic

JASON Manford, star of Channel 4 comedy panel show Eight out of 10 Cats, comes to The Junction on Thursday, October 23. It's the first major UK tour for the Mancunian funnyman who is set to become a household name and has been compared to fellow northerner Peter Kay.

"The show's about all sorts - driving, my wife, dad, family, dog," he says. "Essentially it's just me moaning for a lot of it. "If I wasn't doing this job I think I'd just be some mad bloke outside Boots shouting."

"Sometimes it's a case of putting into words what people may have felt before but haven't been able to articulate."

Tickets are £11-£13. To book call (01223) 511511.

Private garden and parking

CHERRY TREE cottage in Little Wratting is a delightful and charming property, rarely seen on the open market with the benefit of no onward chain. Inside there is a living room, dining room, kitchen, utility room/lobby, bathroom, a good-size double bedroom and a single bedroom. The delightful, established private gardens lie to the rear of the cottage, as well as off-road parking and a garage. This property is on the market for £164,950. To arrange a viewing, contact Balmforth on (01440) 707976.

Time to store extra stuff until next year

AS the days become shorter and cooler, it's time to move those barbecues, bikes and bits of garden furniture into the garage or cellar for the winter.

To save time and money next spring, it's worth taking a bit of care of these items now.

The key thing is to clean everything before putting it away – and to completely remove all signs of rust.

Below are a few simple hints and tips to help.

The barbecue – Heat and humidity cause the barbecue grill to degrade over the summer, even in the poor one we had this year... So, to save pulling out the barbecue next spring and realising it's too rusty to use, give it a thorough clean before moth-balling it.

■ UNTIL NEXT SUMMER... Be sure to give the barbecue a good cleaning before it is stored for the winter.

Seal it using a high temperature tool then paint it using the correct metal paint for a barbecue available at your local DIY store.

The bench – We all love our furniture to be made of natural wood or metal, however there is a disadvantage.

Sun, rain and wind cause metal furniture to age and rust.

Find a sunny Autumn day on which to clean and remove rust from your furniture.

Clean off the rust with a wire brush accessory. You'll find it particularly collects in places such as seat backs or the feet of the chair – but it's easily removed.

Afterwards, apply the exposed metal with a coat of special protecting film – and when spring arrives you'll be able to sit down in your terrace or garden straight away.

The bike – Take care to prepare the family bicycles for the winter break. A dry chain, dirt or rust not only spoil the fun on two wheels, but can become dangerous.

After you've checked the screws, lights, brakes and wheels, the framework and surfaces can be polished with buffing wheels from the Dremel SpeedClic range.

The small brushes and polishing heads can get into awkward places where no rag could reach, for example in the gear shift, brake assembly or the rim between the spokes.

Small amounts of rust can be removed with a sharpening accessory. When you've finished this, the wheel and the chain should be treated with oil – to ensure the bicycle is ready for that first outing next year.

■ ESCAPE . . . The allure of the countryside can be a major factor in selling a property, particularly to those over the age of 45.

Countryside dream helps to sell houses

EVEN with today's busy lifestyles, or perhaps because of them, it seems we are all enticed by the dream of a perfect home in the country.

Proximity to the countryside has emerged as being the most influential factor for buyers, according to new research from Halifax Estate Agents.

Many of us will pay over a £20,000 premium to secure an ideal location, it has been shown, with that dream of a country cottage being shared by one in four.

A house close to a town will also demand a high value if it is close to train links, work and shops.

It may be that age is the definitive factor of whether a town house or a country cottage appeals more.

Eighteen to 34-year-olds were shown to be more concerned with being close to work, while the pull of the countryside was stronger for the over 45s.

Geography plays a part too, with East Anglians shown to be England's top countryside-appreciators.

So it seems that age-old favourite, location, is still top of the list for those on the move.

This has an effect on the value of a property, so those with a sought-after home near the countryside can expect to benefit, especially in East Anglia where a rural home is favoured by so many.

Now is the time to extend your lease

THE UK housing market has taken a turn for the worse – according to Nationwide, house prices are at their lowest level since early 2006.

However, it's not all doom and gloom: this economic downturn means that extending a lease on a property is more affordable.

Why would I want to do that, you might ask? If your property has a short lease, let's say 70 years, it will start to decrease in value and it will be difficult to sell.

This is because mortgage lenders typically will not consider home loans on properties with short leases. Usually they require at least 30/40 years unexpired on a lease after a 25 year mortgage has been paid off.

The cost of extending a lease depends on how long it is, for instance, extending a 60 year lease will be more expensive than extending an 80 year lease. It will also depend on how much your property is currently worth, hence why extending your lease in a falling market is much cheaper.

For example, before the 10 per cent market fall the cost of extending a 60 year lease on a £198,000 flat would have been approximately £26,900.

However, in this current climate it would probably cost in the region of £24,600 because the flat would now only be worth £180,000.

Extending an 80 year lease is much cheaper as there is no marriage value to pay (marriage value is the increase in the value of the property as a result of extending the lease).

For example, extending the lease on a flat worth £198,000 with an 80 year lease before the 10 per cent market fall would have cost around £6,400. Now it would cost around £6,000.

Although you may think you are safe with an 80 year lease, before you know it the lease will drop to 79 years and the premium will become much higher.

Therefore it makes good financial sense to take advantage of your statutory right to extend your lease by an additional 90 years and get the ground rent reduced to peppercorn.

If you have owned your property for two years, you can claim your right, even if you don't live there.

VW's magic carpet rides on

THE PHAETON is now in its second edition, writes Mike Scialom.

First launched five years ago, the new version has gone under most folks' radar. It's been a low-key revision, perhaps because the Phaeton is operating in a low-key realm, a realm in which one doesn't brag because such behaviour is unseemly – and there's nothing unseemly about the Phaeton.

Subtle style revisions including a redesigned bonnet, new headlamps and rear lamp clusters, plus some extra chrome trim around the bumpers. The essential components are the same – why change automotive supremacy? Or, to put it another way, if the underpinnings and engine of the Phaeton are good enough for VW to introduce them into its Bentley Continental GT, then it's hard to find anything to carp about.

From the outside the Phaeton looks understated, so understated, in fact, that it verges on anonymity, although it's no mean feat to make a 17 foot long motor discreet. Open the rear door, however, and you'll see what the fuss is all about – the rear passengers have several feet to stretch their legs out. You could hold a line dancing session in there. It's glorious – and glorious to think that, at £40k, this luxury liner is still affordable (the Mercedes equivalent, the S-Class, is priced from £56,000 and the Lexus LS starts at £54,000). Get in the front and you're looking at one of the most sumptuous interiors you're likely to see outside a Lear jet. Not for nothing are Phaeton sales staff specially trained – this is a button freak's paradise and it took me days to locate all the basics. Just setting up your 18-way seating position requires considerable dedication.

A seven-inch screen lies at the heart of the infotainment system in the centre console. This offers all sorts of goodies like satnav, TV, voice-activated mobile phone and 4Zone Climatronic details.

The dials would easily have graced a Roller from a decade ago, and the acreage of wood and leather manages to be both impressive and reassuring.

Once you fire this big bird up you know you're in for a treat. The drive is sublime and utterly unruffled. The four-wheel drive adds traction to the get-up-and-go of the powertrain. It's a bruiser – it weighs 2.7 tonnes and hits 60 in 8.4 seconds – but as agile and elusive as a phantom. It's a lovely car to drive, feeding you back confidence that leaves you feeling refreshed rather than exhausted even at the end of a long journey.

There's a fault line running through the residuals market which the Phaeton has identified. Too much weight is given to the brand and not enough to the actual vehicle. Snobbery has for too long defined the calibre of a car's used value. Wouldn't it be nice to think that these captains of industry could buy a car based on its actual quality rather than its status value? They could start with the Phaeton. It's not as if any humble pie would have to be consumed!

Basically

Phaeton: in Greek mythology the son of the Sun God Helios, the word means "the shining one". For once a car name that makes sense – and it's a worthy flagship to boot.

Classics 'are superb assets'

ECONOMIC doom and gloom? For anyone buying shares, maybe, but certainly not for the classic car investor.

As shares around the world drop to record lows, the historic and classic cars market is experiencing an incredible surge – many investors are realising that putting cash into hard motoring metal is a wiser move right now than risking a sizeable punt on the stock markets.

London-based Coys, the international car auctioneers, says sales of historic wheels are surging as investors scramble for "hard assets".

Managing director Chris Routledge says: "We are currently reporting very strong sales of vintage and veteran cars, 8.5 million dollars' worth since mid-September.

"It appears that people would rather buy a historic car and put it in the garage than brave the current highs and lows of the stock market."

The firm has offices throughout Europe and America, and recent Coys sales have seen a 1996 Ferrari F50 – the only right-hand drive example ever produced, and custom-made for the Sultan of Brunei – sell for £350,000.

And a 1955 Mercedes-Benz 300SL gullwing, an excellent example that came from a prestigious private collection, realised £385,000.

But an investment in rare British wheels could be the best of all. The last remaining original – ie not restored in any way – example of a 1955 Aston Martin DB3S was recently sold for more than £2 million.

Another notable Coys deal was for a Lancia Aurelia B24 Spyder – this very rare right-hand drive car, which had the same owner for the past 35 years, went under the hammer for £145,000.

"These are just some of the cars sold, and we are continuing to get an increase in inquiries from around the world – not just from traditional car collectors but from those investors who want to get into something different," Routledge says.

■ PRESTIGE ... this 1955 Mercedes-Benz 300SL gullwing realised £385,000 at auction.

And there are still historic cars galore coming onto the market in Britain.

One of the better investments could be an immaculate 1933 Cadillac V12 Sedan, which is going under the hammer at Barons' sale of classic, historic and sports cars at Sandown Park, Surrey, on October 20-21.

In these troubled economic times, it's worth noting that Cadillac was the only American car maker to clock up a profit during the Great Depression era of the 1930s, and the model being sold by Barons – a classic American gangster-style car, complete with running boards – would have cost 4,000 US dollars new in 1933.

Its value as an investment will be proven by the eventual hammer price, but it does carry a sale guideline estimate of £45,000 to £50,000.

Other noteworthy cars offered at the Barons event include historic British sporting machines such as an immaculate 1953 Austin Healey 100/4 with a sale estimate of £25-30,000, and a more contemporary, but still head-turning, supercharged 1990 Morgan Plus 8, with an estimate of £21-23,000.

The latter car and its lower price means that it is more a motor to buy and run, rather than purchasing it for a considerable future return on the outlay. For further information on the Sandown Park sale, visit www.barons-auctions.com

There are much cheaper classics on the market in the UK, though – £3,000 to £8,000 will buy a pristine set of older wheels that should at least hold their value through thick and thin.

The place to see many privately-owned examples is the Classic Motor Show, to be staged at the Birmingham NEC from November 14-16.

The event will be packed with more than 1,000 classic, vintage, veteran and retro cars, spread over five halls at the NEC, and there's free advice on offer at the 170-plus club stands.

Classic Motor Show ticket prices range from £15 in advance.

For the latest updates, or to book tickets, visit www.necclassicismotorshow.com or telephone 0870 060 3776.

■ GANGSTER TREAT ... immaculate 1933 Cadillac V12 Sedan goes under the hammer at Sandown Park later this month.

Suzuki backs scheme for Tyre Safety Month

SUZUKI GB PLC is backing Tyre Safety Month, a nationwide tyre safety campaign organised by TyreSafe, the UK's leading tyre safety organisation. Now in its second year, and taking place throughout this month, the initiative is once again alerting motorists to the dangers of driving with incorrect tyre pressures.

Suzuki, based in Milton Keynes, Buckinghamshire, is the first vehicle manufacturer to support the 2008 Tyre Safety Month, and between now and the end of October, free tyre safety checks are being offered to motorists at participating dealers in the automaker's franchised network in the UK.

Commenting on Suzuki GB's participation in the campaign, Denis Houston, director of after-sales explains: "As we approach the winter period, driving conditions on the road deteriorate, and therefore looking after your tyres becomes ever more important. Tyre Safety Month provides an ideal opportunity for us to reinforce the key message that tyres are a lifeline, and by undergoing a free safety check, this could make all the difference."

To find your nearest dealer offering a free tyre safety check during October, go to www.suzuki.co.uk

■ THE UPCOMING MAZDA3... promises to be a sporty, family car.

LA launch for new Mazda3

MAZDA has confirmed that the four-door saloon version of the all-new Mazda3, completely redesigned for the first time in five years, will be revealed at the Los Angeles Auto Show on November 19.

The all-new Mazda3, which is the latest evolution of Mazda's next generation Zoom-Zoom products, follows the introduction of the all-new Mazda2 and all-new Mazda6 last year. The all-new Mazda3 will be achieve a balance with its fun-to-drive attributes. Add in a new expressive face and Mazda's dynamic design elements, and the all-new Mazda3 is everything a driver could ask for in a sporty, family car.

The brand new version of Mazda's best-selling family car continues the pedigree of the current Mazda3, offering a refreshing alternative to buyers in this segment. Since its launch in 2003, the current Mazda3 has sold approximately 1.8 million vehicles in more than 100 countries, including 13,000 sales in the revealed during Mazda's press conference at LA Auto Show from 12.20 to 12.45 (local time).

UK last year and almost 8,000 sales here so far this year. The Mazda3 has won more than 90 global motoring awards to date. The Mazda3 accounts for almost one in three Mazdas sold every year globally.

Every element of the new Mazda3 has been developed, resulting in a more refined, sporty ride, top class fuel economy and quietness. Environmental and safety features, based on Mazda's long-term "Sustainable Zoom-Zoom" vision, aim to

Following the world debut of the North American specification saloon at the show, the five-door hatchback version will be revealed in line with Mazda's global sales schedule.

At time of going to press sources within the industry were hinting that the new Mazda may be launched in the UK early next year.

■ ZOOM-ZOOM... balance of safety and fun.

Public Notices

COURIER FINANCE LIMITED
Notice Number 02256597

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to Section 98 of the Insolvency Act 1986, that a meeting of the creditors of the above-named company is to be held at Oliver's Lodge Hotel, Needingworth Road, St. Ives, Nr. Cambridge, Cambridgeshire PE27 5JP on 27 October 2008 at 11.15 am for the purposes mentioned in sections 99, 100 and 101 of the said Act. Creditors wishing to vote at the Meeting must lodge their proxy, together with a full statement of account at the registered office - 3rd Floor, Lyndean House, 43/46 Queens Road, Brighton, East Sussex BN1 3XB not later than 12.00 noon on the day prior to the meeting. For the purposes of voting, a secured creditor is required (unless he surrenders his security) to lodge at 3rd Floor, Lyndean House, 43/46 Queens Road, Brighton, East Sussex, BN1 3XB before the meeting, a statement giving particulars of his security, the date when it was given and the value at which it is assessed. A list of the names and addresses of the Company's creditors may be inspected, free of charge, at 3rd Floor, Lyndean House, 43/46 Queens Road, Brighton, East Sussex, BN1 3XB between 10.00 am and 4.00 pm on the two business days preceding the date of the meeting stated above. The resolutions at the creditors' meeting may include a resolution specifying the terms on which the liquidator is to be remunerated. The meeting may receive information about, or be asked to approve, the costs of preparing the statement of affairs and convening the meeting. By Order of the Board
Tim Gilbert, Director

Trainee Animal Technician
Would you like a career working with animals?

We are looking for someone to take the first steps as a trainee animal technician. Your role would involve caring for animals to the highest standards of welfare in excellent facilities located in the south of Cambridge.

Although GCSE A-C in English, Maths and Science would be an advantage lack of those qualifications should not deter you from applying. Previous experience is not necessary but total reliability and commitment is (including some paid weekend and public holiday working). Full training will be provided and further training to gain professional qualifications will be encouraged.

Our client offers all the benefits associated with a large company including an excellent salary with performance based bonuses, flexible working, 25.5 days holiday and much more.

For the right person this could be the best career move you ever made. If you would like to know more please send a CV along with a covering letter explaining why you would like to work with animals to:

Financial Services Manager (Senior IFA) - £45,000
Financial Adviser (IFA) £35,000 and excellent benefits package

Cambridge Building Society is seeking two high calibre individuals to help shape and deliver a new Independent Financial Planning division. This provides an excellent opportunity to join the company pre-launch and to be instrumental in turning the vision into a reality.

We pride ourselves on delivering excellent service to our customers. Our brand values are focused on providing a personal, fair, reliable and trusted service within our local operating area. Both of these positions require individuals who hold personal beliefs aligned to these values.

The Roles

The Financial Services Manager will lead the team and needs experience in this market, demonstrating a track record of success by building strong relationships with customers. Genuine passion to provide great service is essential.

An experienced IFA will work alongside and support the Financial Services Manager in driving this business forward, helping to establish a highly respected and trusted service.

Individuals need to demonstrate competent advisor status and be fully FPC qualified; AFPC is desirable although not essential.

For more information please call Andrew Ferguson, Head of Business Development on 07941 107476. Interested applicants should e-mail their CV and a covering letter detailing why they feel they are right for the role to aferguson@cambridgebs.co.uk by Monday, 27th October 2008.

BECOME A MULTI-SKILLED ENERGY ASSESSOR

New 'green' laws from 1st October require an estimated 3 million Energy Assessments in the next 12 months alone on all homes and commercial properties being rented, sold or built regardless of the credit crunch and housing market downturn.

Applicants are required now to train as Domestic and Commercial Energy Assessors at our nationwide Centres approved by the Government-appointed Awarding Body for the Built Environment. No previous experience is necessary, training is subsidised and taken in separate one - week modules around current job and other commitments.

Our Energy Assessment fees are £60 to £80 for homes and £300 to £1200 for commercial properties - up to 15 Domestic Assessments or 4 Commercial Assessments are estimated to be carried out in a week, subject to size of properties and supply. On qualifying you can opt to be available for potential work through our own Energy Assessor Panel, work for other Assessment Providers or start your own Energy Assessment business.

Other qualifications are included to become even more multi-skilled to gain further potential income streams. For an interview to join this new, fast expanding and environmentally important industry ring

OnStream Service and Sales Engineers

Cambridge - Kings Lynn & M4 Corridor • £30,000 + benefits

For more than a century, BOC's gases and expertise have driven progress in every industry you can think of. Today we're a member of the Linde Group, a world leading industrial gases and engineering company. With more than 49,000 employees in around 70 countries, and annual gases and engineering sales of £12 billion, the future couldn't be brighter. To help us meet high growth targets, we have a number of great opportunities within our service and sales team at locations across the UK.

As a Service and Sales Engineer, you'll carry out essential preventative maintenance and installation work on third-party contracts, to ensure customers are PSSR compliant. Essentially, this will mean providing hands on and technical engineering assistance on a variety of gas storage, pressure and flow control equipment, as well as updating records and producing detailed electronic PPM and WSE reports.

If you're a time-served craftsman with previous experience and a relevant City & Guilds qualification (or equivalent), come and join us. All that we ask is that you're a self-motivated, naturally confident team player. Someone who is capable of managing and communicating constantly changing priorities, and of course, totally customer focused. Strong PC skills and a full driving licence are also essential.

In return, we offer an attractive salary backed by generous benefits and good career development prospects. Some travel throughout the UK, and occasionally Ireland, will be required.

Please apply online at www.bocjobs.com registering your details within the Job Opportunities section. Please select Job ID 849737. Or to find out more go to BOC gases at www.boc-gases.com

MALE 6

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

■ MARCHING ON ... The Steeple Bumpstead Dynamos under-10A squad, who triumphed on penalties in their league cup tie.

Cup delight for spot-on Dynamos

DYNAMOS finally won through to the second round after a tense penalty shoot-out.

In a fine game of football, Spartak took the lead after 20 minutes, but Dynamos pulled together and, in the dying seconds, Charlie Osborn scored to take the game into extra time. Both teams were very tired and the first half of extra time was very even, with each side having half-chances.

Then Osborn netted for Dynamos two minutes before the final whistle. However, Spartak scored right on the final whistle to make it 2-2 and force the penalty shoot-out.

Dynamos started first with Jamie Crouch scoring before Spartak drew level. Osborn missed his penalty, but so did Spartak but Billy Godsmark was successful for Dynamos. Spartak missed their third, and Greg Coston scored Dynamos' fourth. Spartak were then successful, but James Conroy converted the fifth to send Dynamos through 6-4.

Angels go so close to cup glory

Bay Horse 2 Delaware Feather Angels 1

TREADFIRST SUNDAY LEAGUE CHALLENGE CUP, FIRST ROUND

ANGELS narrowly missed causing a major cup upset, as Division One Bay Horse came through for a late victory.

The Sudbury side took an early lead with keeper Adam Fielden saving an effort from a narrow angle only to inadvertently put the ball into the net off his leg. From then on, Delaware dominated and went close on numerous occasions, with Sean McCormack hitting the post.

Angels' equaliser finally came midway through the second half, with Craig Foster hitting a sweet left-footed strike from long range.

As the tie looked to be heading to extra time, Bay Horse scored their winning goal.

Defender Dan Strasters scoring an own goal in the dying minutes was enough to hand victory to the home side.

Delaware Feather Angels: Fielden, Ball, Cox, Pilbrow (Benson), List (Strasters), Foster (Grayton), Stock, Morrison, McCormack, Townsend, Webb.

Carter's double does the trick

Haverhill Rovers U11 4 Ely Crusaders U11 1

CAMBRIDGE AND DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 11C

ROVERS were penned into their half for the first five minutes and saw Ely hit the foot of a post.

Haverhill then produced a stunning goal when Josh Ruthven smashed the ball home from the corner of the penalty area.

In the second half, Rovers' midfield dictated play and Alex Carter was rewarded for his hard work with a goal.

The visitors heads dropped as Jack Trowbridge and Carter made it 4-0 before Crusaders grabbed a consolation goal.

Carter was unlucky not to grab his hat-trick but his shot cannoned off the crossbar.

Grampian Gunners U10 5 Cherry Hinton Lions U10 1

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE U10 CUP, FIRST ROUND

GUNNERS started with confidence, scoring from a header by Grace, followed by a free-kick from Woodley to lead 2-0.

And, after a slip at the back allowed Lions to score, Gunners were quick to reply with a goal from Henderson just before half-time.

Gunners started quickly and created chances for Webb and Thompson before Robson slotted home to make it 4-1.

A superb shot from Fletcher finished the scoring to give Gunners a 5-1 win and a place in the next round.

Grampian Gunners U11 0 West Watting U11 6

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

WRATTING were rewarded with an early Scott Bishop goal and Charlie Ripp soon made it 2-0.

As hard as Grampian tried they came up against a Watting defence that had Dom Fera, man-of-the-match Josh Schiller, Liam Gibbs and Ellis Wiffen in fine form.

Charlie Ellam hit a scorcher a long way out and an own goal just before half time made it a comfortable 4-0 to the visitors.

Watting's half-time talk demanded more of the same and they did not disappoint, as Bishop scored again to make it 5-0. Ripp scored their sixth.

Rovers hit back with six of the best ROVERS travelled to Bottisham to try to carry on their winning ways. The first 10 minutes was end to end before Bottisham scored when a cross from the right squeezed in between Charlotte Coatham and the post. Five minutes later, Chloe Ellis put a through ball to Jessica Clay, who ran on to equalise.

Haverhill then had a bit of luck when a back pass bounced over the Bottisham keeper into the net. The Rovers' midfield won a lot of the tackles, but Bottisham equalised when they followed up after a shot had been palmed away by Coatham. Then Katie Schulz scored two goals – both from long range – and Haverhill went into half time 4-2 ahead. In the second half, Haverhill upped their game, adding further goals, including a strike from Rebecca Ross, to clinch victory.

FOOTBALL: NEWS FROM HAMLET CROFT

Farlie hit by double agony

PAUL Jenkin's penalty gave Haverhill little to smile about as they were thrashed 6-1 at Hamlet Croft by runaway Ridgeons League, Premier Division leaders Lowestoft, who went in front after just 11 seconds.

Jenkins' spot-kick made it 2-1 at half time, but Neil Farlie's men have failed to win for six league games and remain rooted to the bottom.

There was more bad news on Wednesday night when Marc Abbott's brace counted for nothing as Haverhill threw away a two-goal advantage in their Suffolk Premier Cup, first-round clash at Walsham Le Willows.

Abbott scored either side of the interval, firstly heading home Neil Cogger's cross and then converting from a Ryan Kent pass.

But Rovers were caught out three times in the space of 15 minutes and exited the competition.

Rovers urgently need to start picking up league points, if they are not to become detached at the foot of the table.

They get their first chance on Saturday when they travel to Blofield to take on a Norwich United side, who are currently just two places ahead of them.

Then, on Tuesday evening, Rovers are scheduled to return to cup action when near-neighbours Saffron Walden Town are due to visit Hamlet Croft for a Ridgeons League Cup, first-round tie.

■ AT THE DOUBLE...
But Marc Abbott's brace could not prevent a cup defeat for Haverhill.

RUGBY UNION

■ SCORING SPREE . . . Jake Plumridge, who led the way in Haverhill's crushing victory.

Points bonanza for Plumridge

Haverhill 96 Lakenham Hewett 0

EASTERN COUNTIES TWO

JAKE Plumridge had a personal points tally of 41 as Haverhill missed out on racking up a ton by four as they routed Lakenham Hewett in Eastern Counties Two at the Castle Playing Fields on Saturday.

The fly-half got two tries and 31 points with his boot, while Bradley Gibson, Adam Hunt, Mark Ransome and Carl Anderson got two touchdowns apiece and Kevin Carr, Kieran Ewens and Simon Potter one each in the 96-0 win over their visitors from Norfolk.

"I was quite surprised when it got to half time and we were 50-odd points up," said delighted skipper Paul Bergin.

"There was some very good stuff out there that we were very pleased with.

"It was a great all-round performance and the best part was the control and discipline, with only three penalties given away all game."

Haverhill will be looking to build on their good performance on Saturday when they travel to Brightlingsea for another league fixture.

GOLF ROUND-UP

Happy Harry leads them home with medal success

A FIELD of more than 50 contested the midweek medal at Haverhill Golf Club.

Harry Mills produced the best round of the day, returning a gross 68, which gave him the low handicap medal.

Joe Davis was the intermediate winner, while, in the higher handicap group, Roger Hartley excelled with a nett score of 70. Overall scores:
